Paragraph 1-12, Objective and implementation

Add paragraph c after paragraph b.

c. The USAREC Military Awards Program will complement the DA Military Awards Program by ensuring:

(1) Consider all individuals for an award upon transfer or separation. Commanders will establish an administrative program, to include the use of suspense files. These files indicate that supervisors have been notified of an individual's pending duty change. Supervisors will indicate that consideration has been given to soldiers leaving for an appropriate award, or that no award is considered appropriate. The following lists minimum level and area of responsibility:

(2) When transferring within a unit, general or special staff, or duty assignment change, at a minimum, a statement of accomplishments and achievements, if appropriate, is forwarded to the new supervisor from the previous supervisor as input for a future award recommendation.

Paragraph 1-28, Format, content, and distribution of orders

Add paragraphs c through e after paragraph b.

c. Commanders will not forward orders announcing award of a military decoration to the servicing military personnel office prior to presentation of the award. The commander presenting the award is responsible for ensuring that orders announcing the award are presented to the award recipient and uploaded into IPERMS.

d. Commanders/S1s will file the orders log and the DA Forms 638 by calendar year and order number under record number 600-8-105c. Commanders / S1s will up-load the orders log and the DA Forms 638 to the Army Electronic Archives annually in January or February.

e. Commanders/S1s will file certificates, DA Form 638, and any other background information by calendar year alphabetically under record number 600-8-22b. Commanders/S1s will also upload these records to the Army Electronic Archives annually in January or February.

Paragraph 1-47, Requisitions

Add paragraph d after paragraph c.

d. The commanders of recruiting brigades and recruiting battalions will requisition and stock Army Achievement Medals, ARCOMs, and Oak Leaf Clusters necessary to meet projected 90-day requirements. Submit requisitions for medals and clusters through normal supply channels. Necessary control procedures are established to ensure the safeguarding of military awards. Fiscal year funding is budgeted and requested by recruiting brigade commanders for their brigade and subordinate recruiting battalions.

Paragraph 1-50, Reports, number, and types of decorations awarded

Add paragraph f after paragraph e.

f. The only element allowed to report to HQ, TRADOC is HQ USAREC. HQ USAREC will submit one consolidated report to Headquarters, Training and Doctrine Command. Brigades will send reports to HQ USAREC, via e-mail or through SharePoint to arrive not later than the 1st day of the first week of January of each year. DA Form 4612-R (Number and Types of Decorations Approved) is used to submit consolidated reports. Negative reports are required.

Paragraph 3-6, Peacetime award approval authority

Add paragraph n.

n. Recruiting commanders are not authorized to approve military decorations (ARCOM and below) for personnel in the Hometown Recruiter Assistance Program (HRAP). These personnel are normally in a TDY status. Commanders may forward award recommendations to the commander of the Soldier's parent or gaining unit.

Paragraph 8-35, U.S. Army recruiter identification badges

Add paragraphs e through i after paragraph d.

e. The permanent wear of the U.S. Army Basic Recruiter Badge is awarded to the personnel listed below upon successful graduation from the Army Recruiter Course, Recruiting Company Commander Course, Health Care Recruiting Course, or USAREC Pre-command Course, Recruiting Operations Officer - Course.

- (1) DA Select (non-79R) and AGR recruiters.
